Studying in BLCU

Exploring Limitless Opportunities

1

Double Major/ Degree

BLCU has adopted a flexible credits system. Undergraduate students majoring in Chinese Language are allowed to choose a second degree (or major), e.g. International Economics and Trade, after two years of study. As long as they complete the required credits, they will earn double degrees or a double majors.

In addition, BLCU has co-founded “2+3” programs with famous universities of special majors such as Dalian Maritime University (DMU). After two years of study in BLCU majoring in Chinese Language and obtaining an associate’s degree, students could be directly transferred to DMU as a sophomore for a bachelor degree of Maritime Management, Shipping Management, Maritime Law and Cruise and Yacht Management.

Studying in a Third Country

2

You Are the Next Chinese Star

BLCU encourages its international students to take part in various Chinese language competitions and talent shows, such as the Chinese Bridge, CCTV Chinese Star Competition, Chinese debate contest, interpreting contests, singing competitions and festivals of international cultures, and has reaped quite a number of champions in various Chinese language contests. Many of the contesters have now become household names in China, including Tchiegue Francois (Cameroon), Pouya Azadeh (Iran), Gregory James Bryant (US), Greg Scott Mccarthy (USA), Makoto Hachiya (Japan), Hoda Alaa Eldin Hass. A. K. (Egypt), David Klolsov (Russia), Bekhruz Mirzoev (Tajikistan), Pichai Kaewbut (Thailand), Batsanaa Ganbat (Mongolia).

Field Trips in China

Field trip is an important part of BLCU curriculum for international students, through which students can have a better understanding of China and its colorful and diversified cultures. Some of the most popular destinations are Gengma Autonomous County of Dai and Wa ethnic minorities in South China’s Yunnan province, National Museum of Chinese Writing, Chenjiagou, the birthplace of Tai-chi, Laoshe Teahouse, Geely Auto Company, Yuan Longping Rice Research Institute and “Project Hope” primary schools in Sichuan province.

BLCU has formed partnership with more than 300 universities and educational institutions of over 50 countries, and has co-established joint programs with over 50 universities from around 20 countries including US, UK, France, Germany, Spain, Australia, Netherland, Japan and South Korea. This partnership makes it possible for the degree students to go to a third country to study relevant courses and earn transferable credits.

BLCU organizes various Study Abroad programs during summer and winter holidays. These programs provide all the students with an opportunity to study in famous universities and colleges in US, UK, Italy, Japan, South Korea, Malaysia, and other countries and experience their diversified cultures.

Global BLCU

BLCU has co-founded 16 Confucius Institutes around the world, and established three overseas Chinese language centres in Japan, South Korea and Thailand respectively. These overseas institutions offer not only Chinese language courses to local students, but also various kinds of scholarships supporting the students to come to BLCU for further study.

Working in China

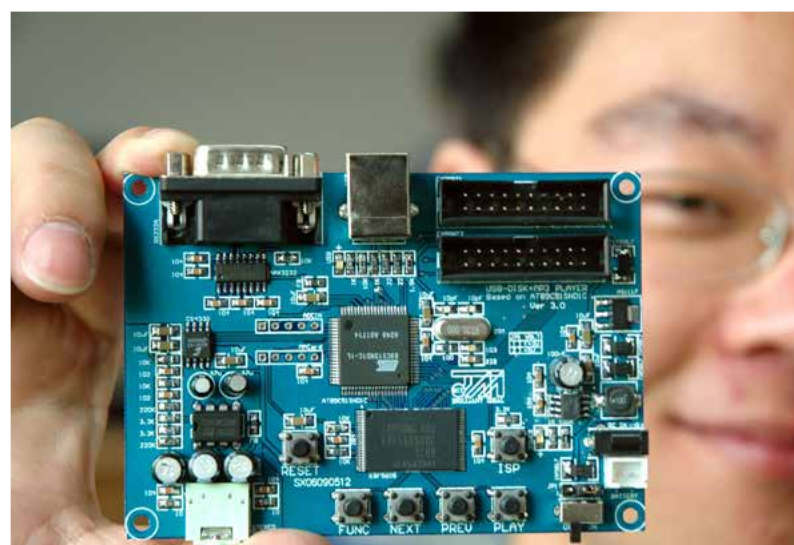

Thanks to the close relationship with Embassies, MNCs, Confucius Institutes and other platforms, BLCU is able to offer its students, via its career centre and online job information platform, a large number of internship opportunities in TV stations, publishing houses, exhibition companies, language training centres, as well as primary and secondary schools. Those opportunities cover jobs in the area of language teaching, finance and banking, IT, media, translation, and tourism.

Student Activities

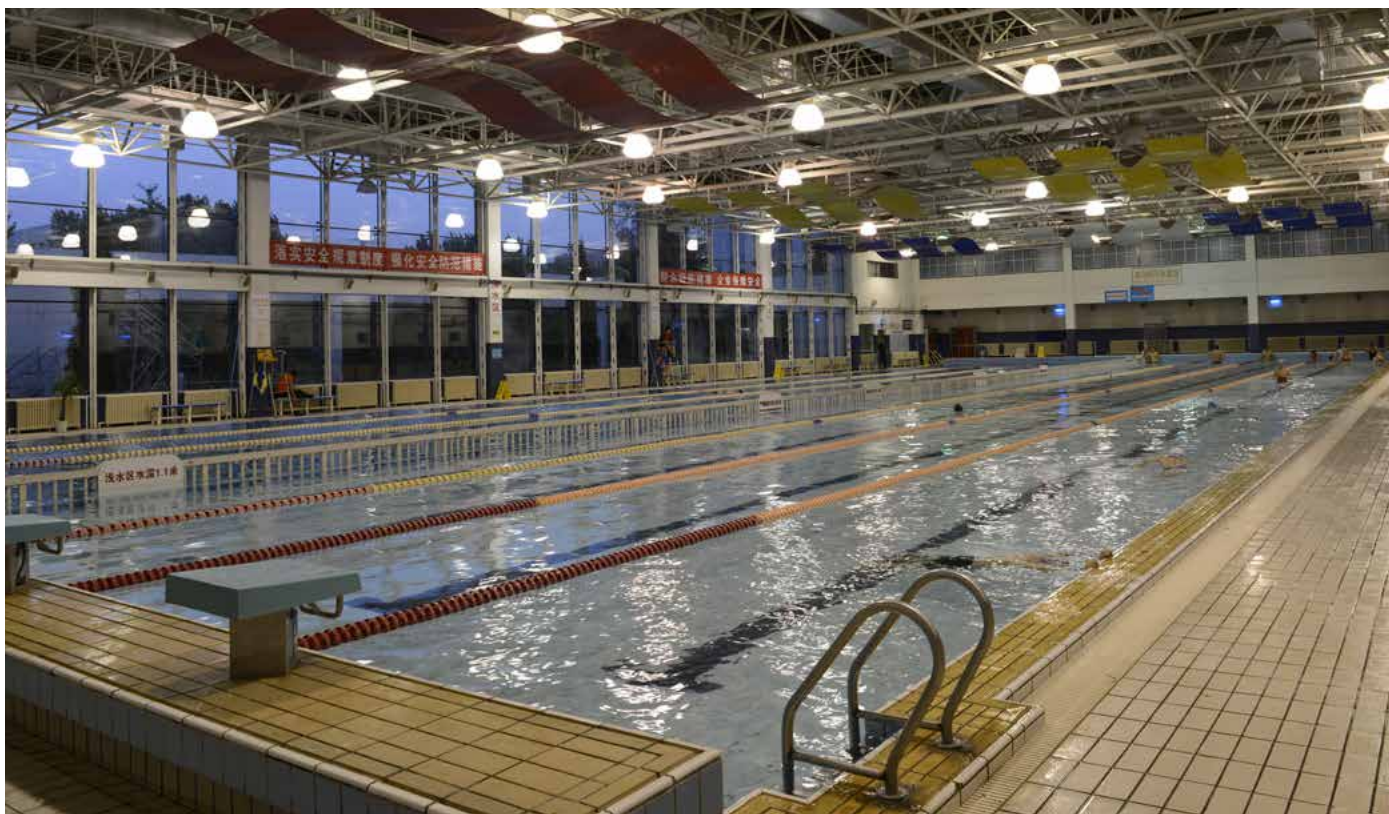

Life in BLCU

BLCU is located in Zhongguancun Science and Technology Park, covering an area of 38 hectares and boasting a quiet and comfortable garden-like environment.

The university is fully equipped with advanced teaching facilities. All the classrooms are air-conditioned and installed with infrared listening systems and multimedia devices. Language labs, multi-functional classrooms and simultaneous interpretation classrooms are all available for students' use.

BLCU has complete leisure and recreation facilities. A thousand-people state of the art theater is just put to use in the newly-built comprehensive building. A variety of restaurants serve Chinese, Western, Japanese, Korean, South-east Asian, and Muslim (halal) food to cater to the needs of diversified students. A range of sports facilities including outdoor basketball, football, volleyball and tennis courts and a gymnasium containing an indoor swimming pool, several badminton courts, ping-pong rooms, bowling rooms and a fitness centre can also be found.

Service facilities such as banks, post offices, supermarkets, laundry stores and internet centers can be found on campus. Getting to and from BLCU is easy with several bus stops (Bus Line 307, 331, 690, 375, 743, 957) and a subway station (Subway Line 13) nearby. A taxi ride from the university to Beijing Capital International Airport will only take around 40 minutes.
